Information we monitor about visitors

During the course of any visit to our site, the pages you see, along with a short text file called a 'cookie', are downloaded to your computer. You can set your browser to accept or reject cookies. These settings will typically be found in the 'options' or 'preferences' menu of your browser.

All our databases are hosted by expert companies in the UK, EU and USA, all are compliant to GDPR. We encourage the use of ISO 27001 registered partners where ever possible. Your data is only held while we process activity between us, and we delete it after 7 years of inactivity.

You have the right to see what we hold about you and to make sure we have the right data on you. You can take the data away with you, have it deleted or request it to be rectified at any time. This can be done in writing to the following email address, mike@admin.parish.email . If you want to complain about what we do with your data, then you can contact the ICO found at www.ico.org.uk.
